World Ag Expo Volunteers Needed

February 12-14, 2019 / International Agri-Center

(Located off Hwy 99 in Tulare)

On February 12-14, 2019, WPGA and PERC will once again co-host the propane industry's exhibit at the World Ag Expo (Tulare Farm Show). For those not familiar with this event, the World Ag Expo is the largest agricultural trade show in North America, with more than 1,500 exhibitors, 2.1 million square feet of exhibit space, and 90 acres of on-site parking. Attendees come to the show because they know they will see a wide range of products and equipment, all in one place.

As in past years, we need volunteers to help staff the exhibit booth. Your help and involvement in setting up and staffing the booth would be appreciated. To volunteer, please complete the section below and return this form to the WPGA office as soon as possible by fax (916) 447-9740 or email to info@westernpga.org.

This is a great opportunity to promote propane as a clean-burning fuel with a specific emphasis on agricultural and rural community uses. If you have equipment or other items that you would like to display please list them below.
